Future Homemakers Of America

The over-all goal of the organization is to help individuals improve personal, family and community living, now and in the future.

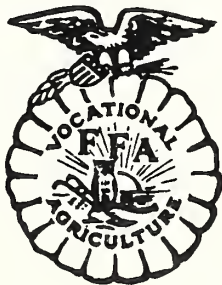

The motto is "Toward New Horizons." This motto is a challenge. It reminds members that their contributions to home life today will influence the kinds of homes they have tomorrow; that the family life of members will influence the community and the world.

Class History

It's August 1956. Sixty-three students enter high school for their first year, as freshmen. The thoughts were frightening, but after a few weeks we loved it.

Our sponsors were Miss Mary Niblock and Mrs. Carolyn Williams. At our first class meeting we elected Kenneth Smith, president; Becky Hinson, vice president; Linda Jordan, secretary; and Barbara Akins, treasurer.

During this year 13 members of our class joined the band and we were very proud when they marched in the Charlotte Carrousel. Six of our classmates joined the Glee Club. We were also proud when Brenda Lancaster, Sue Beam, and Joyce Almon were elected as cheerleaders. Another honor was given to our classmate, Becky Hinson, who was chosen as Homecoming Queen.

We began our next year as sophomores with the help of Mrs. Margaret Burns and Mrs. Louise Morrison. We chose as our officers: J.W. Isenhour, president, Jerry Christenbury, vice president; Becky Hinson, secretary; and Brenda Lancaster, treasurer.

During this year Becky Hinson was chosen Queen of Hearts. Also, out of our class six girls and three boys became members of the basketball teams. Another classmate, Barbara Akins joined the cheerleaders.

Our next year was much more exciting because now we were juniors. Mrs. Lucille Daniel and Mrs. Janet Goldiere were our sponsors. To lead our class we elected Kenneth Smith, president; E.K. Riley, vice president; Linda Jordan, secretary; Jerry Christenbury, treasurer; and Joyce Collins, reporter.

We were all very proud when 18 members of our class were selected to be tapped into the Beta Club. These included: Joyce Collins, Becky Hinson, Peggy Efird, Linda Jordan, Ann Stirewalt, Sue Beam, Ruby Johnson, Martha Howell, Joyce Almon, Judy Ballard, Rebecca Patterson, E.K. Riley, Kenneth Smith, George Cline, Jerry Christenbury, J.W. Isenhour, Dunn Smith, and John Vanpelt.

A very important time came when we presented our junior play. We chose "Happy Daze," with Mrs. Janet Goldiere directing. The cast included: Joyce Collins, Martha Howell, Linda Jordan, Ruby Johnson, Barbara Moore, Ann Stirewalt, J.W. Isenhour, George Cline, Johnny Foster, Jerry Christenbury, Jimmy Smith, and Bill Chapman. This year Becky Hinson was chosen as High School Queen and she rode in the Kannapolis and Concord parades.

During this year George Cline was elected president and J.W. Isenhour, corresponding secretary, of the State F.T.A. Club, with the help of Mrs. Lucille Daniel, Odell's F.T.A. sponsor.

As the graduation exercises were being planned, the marshals were chosen from our class. Kenneth Smith was chief, with Martha Howell, Linda Jordan, Ruby Johnson, Ann Stirewalt, J.W. Isenhour, E.K. Riley, and John Vanpelt, assisting.

As the year came to a close we entertained the seniors with a lovely banquet. The theme we chose was "Mardi Gras," and we all worked very hard to make it a success.

Finally, our dreams came true. Now, we were seniors. Mrs. Mary Cooke and Mr. Carl Cathy were to be our sponsors. For our officers we chose Ruby Johnson, president; Sue Beam, vice president; Linda Jordan, secretary; and Jerry Christenbury, treasurer.

To start the year off right, work was begun on the newspaper and annual. Several members of the newspaper staff had been chosen at the close of our junior year. These included Ruby Johnson, editor; Judy Ballard, co-editor; and Johnny Foster, circulation manager. Several of the annual staff members had also been chosen, and, they were: Linda Jordan, editor; and Martha Howell, co-editor; Jerry Christenbury, business manager; and Sue Beam, co-business manager.

During one of our first class meetings, we elected the remainder of the annual staff. They were: Jimmy Lyerly, snapshot editor; Peggy Efird and Brenda Lancaster, circulation managers; and Joyce Collins, Carol Weaver, and Ann Stirewalt, typists. The remainder of the newspaper staff included: Barbara Akins, feature editor; Brenda Lancaster and Kenneth Smith, sports editors. Mrs. Mary Cooke was the sponsor for our annual, and Mrs. Augusta Stough and Mr. Bruce Anderson sponsored the newspaper.

Just before Christmas, plans were begun on our senior play. We chose "Peck's Bad Boy" with Mr. Cathy directing. Members of the cast included: Kenneth Smith, E.K. Riley, Joyce Collins, Ann Stirewalt, Barbara Moore, J.W. Isenhour, Becky Hinson, Martha Motley, Barbara Akins, Bill Chapman, George Cline, Carol Weaver, and Peggy Efird.

As we began to make preparations for graduation, we chose Ann Benson and Stevie Fortner, as our class mascots. In making plans for our class night exercises, we chose Barbara Akins, class poet; Brenda Lancaster, class prophetess; Judy Ballard and Buddy Robbins, giftorians; Becky Hinson and Bill Chapman, class lawyers; and Ann Stirewalt, historian.

This year Martha Howell was chosen as "Miss Hi Miss" and Ruby Johnson was awarded the D.A.R. "Good Citizenship Award."

Last Will And Testament

We, the class of 1960 of W.R. Odell High School, Town of Concord, County of Cabarrus, State of North Carolina, acknowledging that our days of hard work and happiness in this institution are nearing an end, do hereby declare the following as our Last Will and Testament.

Item I

We leave to the rising seniors the honor of being seniors.

Item II

We leave to our parents our appreciation and love for the time they have spent, and the guidance they have given throughout our school years.

Item III

We leave to the faculty our sincere thanks for helping us and standing by us throughout our school years.

Item IV

The following are bequeaths by members of the graduating class.

I, BARBARA AKINS, do hereby will my ability for writing, to my little sister Gaye. Maybe someday we'll have a famous writer in the family.

I, JIMMY ALLEN, will my place on the second string basketball team to my brother Benny, hoping that he will make first string before his Senior year.

I, LARRY ALLRED, will my class ring to Hilda Smith, but assuring her of another ring later on.

I, JAMES ALMON, will bus No. 22 to anyone who can handle a long train.

I, JOYCE ALMON, leave my friendly ways to Linda Foster.

I, JERRY ALMOND, will my ability to never be in a hurry to Ted Russ. Slow down man it's better for your nerves.

I, JUDY BALLARD, will my last name to Betsy Baucom. Take good care of it Betsy.

I, LEWIS BAUCOM, will my piano playing to anyone who has hot fingers.

I, SUE BEAM, will my ability to manage a household, take care of my husband, hold a part time job, and still pass my schoolwork to any underclassman who tries to do it.

I, JIMMY CARRIKER, will my French book to Ronnie Wilson. Watch those French girls Ronnie.

I, BILL CHAPMAN, will my last name to Marylin Mesimer, hoping that she doesn't get tired of waiting.

I, JERRY CHRISTENBURY, will my funny part in the junior play to anyone who looks dumb enough for it.

I, HOWARD COLEY, will my narrow escapes in wrecks to anyone who thinks they can come out as near in one piece as I have.

I, JOYCE COLLINS, leave my flirty and carefree ways to Linda Frye.

I, GEORGE CLINE, will my place on the bench in basketball to Larry Taylor, hoping he doesn't get as many splinters as I did.

I, RONNIE CRAVEN, will my hard head to Mike Stegall, hoping he will get a better horse before he gets killed.

I, SHERRILL DANCY, will my ability to lay out of school and still pass to anyone that likes to hunt.

I, DELORIS EDWARDS, will my quiet ways to Jewel Lambert, in hopes she can take a hint.

I, PEGGY EFIRD, will my pretty dimples to Lana Bost.

I, WAYNE FITZPATRICK, will my ability to get along with everyone to Floyd Kerr. Always keep that smile Floyd.

I, JOHNNIE FOSTER, will my ability to keep my eyes and ears open and my big mouth shut to Barry Russell.

I, LINDA FURR, leave my ability to learn French to Jatana Smith.

I, BECKY HINSON, leave all the fun I had while playing basketball to my little brother Roy.

I, MARTHA HOWELL, leave all the bumps and bruises I've gotten while playing basketball to anyone who can take it.

I, J.W. ISENHOUR, will my position on the basketball and baseball teams to my brother Bobby, hoping that he will have more success than I did.

I, MARGRET JOHNSON, leave my seat in last period study hall to Joyce Tucker.

I, RUBY JOHNSON, will my position as co-captain of the basketball team to Linda Taylor. Don't let them get out of line, Linda.

I, LINDA JORDAN, will my position as editor of the annual to Becky Cook. It's a lot of work, but a lot of fun.

I, BRENDA LANCASTER, leave my natural blond hair to all those who get theirs from a bottle.

I, RONNIE LINKER, will my height to anyone who can reach it.

I, BRUCE LIPE, will my ability to stay in English class with my wise cracks to Barry Polk, hoping he won't let English get boring to everyone.

I, CAROLYN LITAKER, will my love for dancing to my sister Francis.

I, JIMMY LYERLY, will my camera to anyone who likes to see the little light flash.

I, BOBBY MEASMER, being of small body and similar mind, leave my shortness to Robert Dorton, hoping he doesn't get pushed around like I did.

I, CAROL MESIMER, will my ability to be witty to Lana Bost.

I, BARBARA MOORE, leave my ability to get parts in the class plays to anyone who thinks they can memorize a part.

I, MARTHA MOTLEY, will my neatness to Phyllis Gaskey.

I, WAYNE PARKER, will my friendly ways to Charles Howell, hoping he doesn't ever let anyone get mad at him.

I, REBECCA PATTERSON, do hereby will my ability to be married and still finish school to anyone with the ambition to do it.

I, BRENDA POPLIN, gladly leave all the tough luck I have had with my boy friends to anyone, because I have had my share of bad breaks.

I, R. L. PORTER, will Mr. Allen's agriculture truck to George Oehler; maybe you can get to the store more than I did, George.

I, E.K. RILEY, leave my unused solid geometry book to Billy Long, assuming he will return it in the same condition.

I, TONY RICHIE, will my long wavy hair to Ted Russ. Don't let the comb companies go broke, Ted.

I, BUDDY ROBBINS, will my ability to get along with all the girls to Larry Taylor.

I, TOMMY SELLARS, will my job as manager of the basketball team to Ronnie Wilson, knowing that is the only way he will get it.

I, DUNN SMITH, will my roving forest (station wagon) to anyone who can afford to feed the termites.

I, JIMMY SMITH, will my speeding tickets to Ronnie Wilson. Watch for those cars with the big red lights, Ronnie.

I, KENNETH SMITH, will my perfect attendance to Floyd Kerr, who so far has perfect absences.

I, ANN STIREWALT, leave my ability to get along with everyone to Poni Johnson.

I, JOHN RAY VANPELT, will my weight to Reid VanPelt. You better start eating spinach, Reid.

I, CAROL WEAVER, leave all the fun I've had in Home Economics to next year's Senior girls.

I, HOWARD WEAVER, will my bus to Barry Russell, knowing that it is the only way he will get it.

CAROL WEAVER, We give you a typing eraser since you typed so much on the annual.

HAROLD WEAVER, We give you a tractor, since you like agriculture so much.

Class Prophecy

It is really hard to believe that fifteen years have passed since we graduated from high school. Being a secretary for the best lawyer around, I see a lot of my old friends and classmates. A few days ago my boss, Mr. BILL CHAPMAN, and I were talking about what a success KENNETH SMITH had made as a history teacher in one of New York's largest schools.

The other morning I was sitting at my desk when E. K. RILEY, a former classmate and close friend of Mr. Chapman's walked into the office. The two friends had a long chat about the good old days. Mr. Riley, who is president of the chemical plant where DUNN SMITH is foreman, was telling us about JIMMY and JOYCE ALMON. Jimmy is now the district manager for Spur Incorporated, while Joyce is part time secretary for Lamarr Insurance Company and also housewife and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Almon have a fine family of three.

Yesterday, I went around to Sue's Beauty Salon for a hair set. I was surprised to walk through the door and find SUE BEAM, the new owner. She informed me that she was also the owner of three other shops in different towns in North Carolina. While I was there I ran into MARTHA MOTLEY. Martha was now a very ambitious elementary school teacher, and during the summer months she works in a flower shop owned by JOYCE COLLINS. Miss Collins finally hooked a man, and is now the mother of two sets of twins. Joyce has really made a success of her life.

We hear that BARBARA AKINS and PEGGY EFIRD are now working as dress designers for Seventeen Magazine. Barbara also writes poems for Ladies' Home Journal in her spare time. She is married to a lab technician at the Charlotte Hospital. Peggy is engaged to the editor of the magazine for which she is employed.

I received a letter from a very close friend, BECKY HINSON. Becky is leading quite an interesting life as the wife of a railroad engineer, and is living in Kansas City when not traveling around with her husband. Becky told me that she ran into MARTHA HOWELL last week and Martha was very happy in her position as an airline hostess for Trans World Airlines. The pilot, incidentally, is WAYNE PARKER. Wayne decided that it would be safer to fly in the air with wings than on the ground without wings. Martha also said that on her last trip which was from California to North Carolina, she had as a passenger on her plane, Mrs. JUDY BALLARD and her husband, David. They were returning to Concord to visit their friends and family. Judy has been very happy as the wife of a sailor.

My old friends, BARBARA MOORE and CAROL WEAVER, dropped by to see me yesterday. I was surprised to learn that these two women were now working in a food tester's laboratory in Baltimore, Maryland. Barbara told me that she ran into JIMMY LYERLY and JIMMY CARRIKER. Jimmy Lyerly is working as a very prominent undertaker at Lady's Funeral Home in Concord, and Jimmy Carriker was a very prosperous farmer and also a happily married man with a family of twelve.

LINDA FURR, head librarian at Concord Public Library, has made a success of herself. She has written a book which is a best seller. The book is entitled "How to Lose Weight."

JIMMY ALLEN, who is coach for the State College Basketball team in Raleigh, came by to see us last week. He said that J. W. ISENHOUR was now captain of the world famous basketball team, The Harlem Globe Trotters.

We hear that RUBY JOHNSON has made a great success of her life, too. She is working as an English teacher at her old Alma Mater, Odeil High School.

LINDA JORDAN, the nationally known opera singer, is appearing in a play which is now playing Broadway.

MARGARET JOHNSON and CAROLYN LITAKER are now famous hair models for Edwards Hair Modeling Agency. The agency is owned by DeLORIS EDWARDS.

RONNIE CRAVEN, SHERRILL DANCY, and WAYNE FITZPATRICK are well known in the world of horses. They are very successful bookies.

We were pleased to hear that our old friend and classmate, GEORGE CLINE, the well known singer, has made his debut on the Ed Sullivan Show. JOHN RAY VANPELT is his business manager.

CAROL MESIMER tells us that she is leading a very simple but happy life. She is working with her husband in a super market selling fruit and vegetables. Carol tells us that Ronnie Linker and Bruce Lipe are the drivers of their produce trucks.

We read in a movie magazine where they were making a re-run of the movie "Hercules." BOBBY MESIMER, who is a very popular actor, is going to play the part of Hercules in the new movie. Good luck, Bobby.

The last I heard, TONY RICHIE was playing a guitar with a rock'n roll band at a nearby beach.

BUDDY ROBBINS is now a dance instructor at Arthur Murray's Dance Studio in New York City. ANN STIREWALT is also a teacher at the Murray's Studio. She teaches ballroom dancing. We were shocked to hear that Ann is not yet married, but she is still looking.

JOHNNY FOSTER and R. L. PORTER are partners in an antique car lot. They have hired TOMMY SELLERS to travel over the United States to collect parts for these prize possessions.

JERRY CHRISTENBURY is working in the First National Bank, his main job is guarding the vault.

BRENDA POPLIN is working for the Concord Tribune. She has a column called "Advice to the Lovelom." Miss Poplin is happily married, and is the mother of five children.

Our old friend, JERRY ALMOND, who is now a pilot in the Air Force, told us of his visit to a concert at Madison Square Garden when off on leave. He was surprised to see the piano player was none other than our own LEWIS BAUCOM.

I was walking down Main Street last week when I ran into REBECCA PATTERSON. I was surprised to hear that she was still working at Miller and Jones Shoe Store. She had been promoted to assistant manager. Rebecca informed me that she and Brad were expecting a new addition to their family in about four months. Rebecca is already the mother of three.

I read in the newspaper that HOWARD COLEY has finally reached his million dollar point. He is the dignified owner of several oil wells in Oklahoma.

We also read that LARRY ALLRED was going to begin working at the Radio Station WEGO as news broadcaster. Larry's place of business is in a very nice location—on the banks of the Buffalo Creek.

JIMMY SMITH'S sister told me recently that her brother had gone to Arizona in hopes that he would find the girl of his dreams and be married. What's the matter, Jimmy, don't you like the girls at home?

HOWARD WEAVER, who is a famous doctor, came in for help this morning. It seems that he was being sued for issuing the wrong kind of medicine to a very wealthy lady. The lady is now in the hospital. Good luck, Mr. Weaver.

Well, I guess I'd better be getting back to work. This Weaver case will take a lot of work.

Class Poem

The years have flown swiftly by.
We've learned the answers to our adolescent "why's."
With the help of nature, God, and man,
We will try to comprehend and meet the world's demands.

We are forever indebted and grateful to those
Who pushed us onward in spite of our "No's."
At times we were unattentive to their pleas.
The fact that we did learn may put their minds at ease.

What our future holds remains to be seen,
But with our eyes full of tears we know our hearts will be clean.
We thank you, dear God, for the chance we have had.
To better ourselves in your sight makes us humble and glad.

So now the time comes to bid a sad farewell
To friends and friendships you could neither buy nor sell.
Goodbye to the Alma Mater we've learned to love with all our hearts,
And hope that to its life we have added a very small part.
